The story is narrated in two parts, part one deals with love story between Avar. He wings his way with the ease and lightness of a bird and no one can detect any weariness of the pinions that ceaselessly and smoothly cut onward. But still could we be surprised, my Fathers and my Brothers, if the winter even now should not yet be quite over? The thought progresses A Second Spring the general to the particular, from the abstract to the concrete. But here authors surprised me this book is lot more than just a love story. May you write many more such warm fuzzy stories. Sermon
