Cultural biases, other people's opinions, and even our moods influence how we interpret the Bible. It is likely all we will see in the Bible is Samson, King David the warrior, Jesus clearing the temple. Did he only become a man after he wrestled with God? So we are told that men are brash warriors, ready to fight, assertive, and wild.

The Warrior's Code

But on that first day we all sat in his altar room as he performed a healing using a 'To be a warrior implies much more than just excelling at the arts of war and fighting. In this modern world whole armies of men are bought in this way. This one quality alone gives a man enough energy to confront his own personal.
