Schools in Asia teach English from primary school onwards. Europe is also a great spot for English teachers looking to teach children. Yep, you read that right. First, I trained for 2 years and got certificate to teach in Kenyan primary schools, then I undertook a 3-year Diploma course in Special Needs Education and now am almost completing my postgraduate Diploma in Curriculum Design and Development. I began teaching in and have already taught in the UK for 2 years.

The trick for you will be to adapt your current specialty to a subject more like ready to work hard and do a decent amount of homework, and in-class training in order to achieve your TEFL certificate. God Bless.
