sympathized with him and could not begin to imagine the turmoil he was in. It introduces the concept of a 'third generation' of text artists whose work treats language neither as a novel ontology of art nor as image, but as the grammar, or logic, of all meaningful activity and exchange.

Keith's emotions were very evident during this portion of the book. Sandra Wadkins rated it it was amazing Jun 28, To me, it focused a bit too much on meditation.
