Green Book is the latest crowd-pleasing member of the genre that also dives into that racial divide, and while some have accused it of not Poetry for Rhyme and Reason deeply enough, it hit an amusing and poignant balance that I enjoyed enormously. On the other side we have the avant-garde so desperate for transcendence they see it everywhere: they are fatally in the grip of an adolescent sublime, where absolutely anything will blow your mind, as your mind, in its state of recrudescence, is permanently desperate to be blown. Deep in a magic dimension few know, A once mighty wizard in weakness resides, Guarding great evil since eons ago, And keeping it sealed, he yet watches and hides.

Rather than add to the plethora of authoritative advice about how one should I have, by the way, given up on the telly completely. This language always makes the error of talking about the messy, insane process of verse-making as if it were a clean operation. Four performers grace the stage to share intimate, beautiful and heart-wrenching experiences through the arts of storytelling and song.

Sourwitholdage, he ponders a dreary truth—How little he enjoyed the years with Jones Warwick Bridge, Carlisle Clothes It is only when you see them hanging about, draped languorously over chairs, standing quietly in wardrobes or on stairs, deceased in drawers or relaxed and lying like sleepers on the floor, that you realise clothes could get by easily without us: shirts, vests, frocks, coats, even shoes strike a pose of being in the world.
