Also by Meg Howrey. You've reached the maximum number of titles you can currently recommend for purchase. Gwen's absence gives Kate the opportunity to dance outside of her sister's shadow, but it also leaves her alone with her own thoughts of guilt, for recognizing Gwen's symptoms long ago but not getting her the help she needed, as well as her own obsessions of perfection.

I think I have more quotes from this book highlighted than any other book on my K Kate frequently questions where the line between sanity and insanity lies. You must log in to edit Common Knowledge data.
The author might have been passionate about dancing herself at one point in her
