She was on her way to pick up a pair of ice skates that she had left off to get sharpened at a motorcycle repair shop near her house. From defending an innocent giant on death row to investigating an island in Arkansas with a terrible secret, from the warring halls of Congress to a crumbling medieval tower in Italy, Grace solved crimes in between shopping at Bergdorf Goodman and being marked for death by the sinister

Black Hand. The reader is taken on a surprising adventure with enough twists, turns and dangerous action to keep the pages turning as fast as possible. Boneheadedness was proved. When Grace found a way to search the basement again and Ruth's body was discovered she made enemies of the embarrassed police force. If an officer arrested someone for speeding he would send the offender to Cocchi, suggesting that the repairman was able to compromise cases for a small fee. If the case demanded it—and often it did—she would conduct her own research: i rushed home to recount the encounter to her father, Henry. Inez Milholland.
