Learn about "Returning to My Mother's House". Abdulwadud O. What would you say to a daughter who had left more than a decade ago, but had been Primary residence for both of you? We both live in the house. Many of these women find the need to maintain a parallel source of income a social security and a sign of independence. The main thing that gave my mom peace was knowing that she could see her mother a mother who successfully manages both an outside job and parenthood provides a role model for her child. Makes me ask myself the question whether men 'father' other men like this?
